

RE
 Christianity - Is anything ever eternal?
 (Salvation)
 Christianity - Is Christianity still a strong religion 2000 years after Christ was on Earth? (Salvation)

ICT
 Safer Internet Day - 6th February
 PowerPoint - Timing, hyperlinks, sound effects and creating a presentation.
 Scratch - Adapting a times table game to make a Maya game.

Art and DT
 Dan Fanelon - Modern Maya art.
 Sketching - eyes and mouths.
 Maya food and drink.
 Weaving.
 Maya Museum.

Homework
 Mathematics - up to 5 activities a week.
 Daily reading and summary sentence.
 Spellings - LSCWC and an activity.
 A small piece of research.

Geography
 Location of Central America and the countries that make it up today.
 Location, flora and fauna of the rainforests.

Class 6 - Spring 2018
Chocolate - Maya Gold

Science
 Evolution and inheritance - fossils as evidence of change, variation in living things and adaptations to suit environment.
Electricity - effects of voltage, varying bulbs, buzzers, motors and switches, constructing v=circuit diagrams with symbols.

Literacy
 Book Study - Charlie and The Chocolate Factory (Roald Dahl)
 Writing adventure stories based on Sandy Cove by Pie Corbett
 Writing explanations of how chocolate is grown and made.
 Writing non - chronological reports about rainforest animals.

Maths
 Decimals (tenths, hundredths and thousandths.)
 Percentages (fractions to %, %of amounts.)
 Algebra (number patterns, generalisations.)
 Converting units of measurement.
 Perimeter, area and volume.
 Ratio and proportion.

History
 When the Maya lived. Religion and Gods. Maya cities and architecture.
 Number system, including calendars and currency.
 Maya writing, hieroglyphs and codices. Food and drink.
 Exploration and documentation, exploring evidence.