Please remember the application form is an essential part of our selection process, and the information you give will assist in selecting a shortlist of candidates for interview, it is therefore important that you complete the application in full. If you wish to complete by hand please use black ink.

Completing your Application Form

- Read through the information you have been sent, and particularly study the advertisement, job description and person specification, (where applicable).
- Complete as fully as possible all of the sections. If any information requested is not applicable to you then please state this in the relevant section.
- Curriculum Vitae (CV) – Please do not enclose a CV. You are asked to complete the application form in full. If a CV is required this will be specifically requested. It is acceptable, however to provide additional information in support of your application, but this should be relevant to the job you are applying for.
- Returning Your Form – Please return to the address given in the supporting information. All applications received at Wiltshire County Council are handled in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998.

People with Disabilities

This form seeks information on whether you consider yourself to have a disability so that we can meet the requirements of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995. We also use the Double Tick Symbol, which means that we offer a guaranteed interview to any disabled person who applies for a position and meets the minimum or essential criteria. (Note: not adopted by all Wiltshire Schools.) These notes should help you to complete the information requested where this relates to disability.

Definition of disability under the Disability Discrimination Act:

A person has a disability if s/he has a physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on her/his ability to carry out normal day to day activities. See notes below on what this means in practice.

Impairment:

This cover physical and mental impairments including mental illnesses, learning disabilities and hearing and sight impairments.

Substantial:

This is something more than minor or trivial and beyond normal differences in ability which may exist among people.

Long-term adverse effect:

The effect must be a detrimental one and is long-term if it has lasted or is likely to last for at least 12 months or for the rest of a person's life. If the effect is likely to recur beyond 12 months it is treated as long term. Where a person is likely to recover within 12 months from a long-term illness or, say, loss of mobility due to a broken leg, this is not included.

Normal day-to-day activities

These are activities carried out by most people on a fairly regular and frequent basis. It does not include specialised activities which are normal only for a particular person or a group of people.

An impairment has a substantial adverse effect if it affects:–

- |  |   |   |  |
|--|---|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Mobility  | <input type="checkbox"/> Manual dexterity   | <input type="checkbox"/> Physical Co-ordination                                     | <input type="checkbox"/> Continence                                    |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Ability to lift, carry or move everyday objects | <input type="checkbox"/> Speech, hearing or eyesight (excludes the wearing of spectacles) | <input type="checkbox"/> Memory, or the ability to concentrate, learn or understand | <input type="checkbox"/> The perception of the risk of physical danger |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Diabetes  | <input type="checkbox"/> Dyslexia   | <input type="checkbox"/> Heart conditions   |  |

Progressive Illnesses and Past Disabilities:

Progressive conditions are covered where impairments are likely to become substantial. Examples include cancer, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy and HIV. The Act covers people from the time of the onset of the illness, even though at that time the effect on normal day-to-day activities may not be substantial. The Act also covers people who have had a disability in the past.
