Dear Parents,

Thank you for your support with Odd Socks Day on Monday, which started Anti-Bullying Week. This awareness raising week finishes on Friday with BBC Children in Need Day. School Council will be running a number of events this week to raise extra funds to support this charity.

All through the week, (from Tuesday onwards) raffle tickets will be on sale at playtimes and lunchtimes for just 10p each. The 1st prize is a pair of Pudsey ears (and some chocolate) and the runner up prize is a Pudsey enamel pin badge (and some more chocolate!). The raffle will be drawn during worship on Friday morning.

On Thursday and Friday of this week, School Council will be asking everyone in the school to sign our new Anti-Bullying Charter, which they have designed and worded themselves. This shows our unity in wanting to stop bullying.

On Friday, if they would like, your children may wear spotty clothing. If you don't have spots, stripes or bright colours are fine. You may even want to do spotty make up or crazy hair! If you are able to make a donation for this, we would greatly appreciate it. All the money will be collected at the entrance to school on Friday morning and given directly to the charity. This donation also includes a Pudsey bear biscuit, that Mrs Carpenter will bake and School Council will decorate and bring round at playtime.

Finally, if you have any spare copper coins at home, we will be having a 'Pennies on Pudsey' activity in the afternoon. First, we will try to complete his outline, and if we are successful, we will try to fill him up with coins. All those pennies make a big difference to families in need.

Thank you for your support,

School Council.

We know that God loves us; We show it by being loving, honest and respectful.
