Favourite Meals

Spaghetti hoops have proved popular and will stay on the menu. Mrs Carpenter asked for ideas to have as an 'extra' with roast gammon. Suggestions included: Leeks & cheese, pineapple, different stuffing. Melted/ cooked cheese proved unpopular with some of SNAG, they are to ask in class who likes cooked cheese.

Letter to Jamie Oliver

The children looked at an article in First News about the quality of school dinners. They decided to write to Jamie Oliver to say how excellent the school dinners are at St. Andrew's.

Cookie Competition

The cookie competition had been extremely popular with thirty-three entries. Martha won first prize and Ollie & Finley were runners up. Mrs Carpenter made the prize-winning cookies for tuck. All the highly commended cookies will be included for tuck.

Queen's Platinum Pudding

Out of thousands of entries the St Andrew's pudding made it to the last fifty! Sadly, it was not in the final five. Mrs Walker read the letter from Fortnum & Mason, something is on the way as a gesture of congratulations, how exciting! Mrs Carpenter is going to include the Raspberry & Peach Platinum Pudding for dessert next week.
