

Salisbury Museum Discovery Days 2021

All Discovery day activities 10am – 4pm No booking required.

Cost: Normal admission charges apply

27 July. Fashion Fun for Everyone

Artist Sue Martin celebrates Salisbury Museum's newly refurbished Fashion Gallery with an arts workshop for the whole family. Get arty, get crafty, maybe get a little messy, but it will all be absolutely fabulous. Drop in for families all day.

3 August. Let's Go Build Salisbury!

Those amazing plastic brick builders 'Bright Bricks' are back at the museum by popular demand. To mark 801 years of the cathedral, the plastic brick experts have worked out the plans to build replicas of the historic buildings in Salisbury and will be helping visitors to reconstruct medieval architecture in miniature form. Drop in for families all day.

10 August. I Spy Art

Inspired by the current Richard Chopping exhibition which includes original illustrations for Ian Fleming's 'James Bond' books, artist Liza Morgan will be here and helping you create all sorts of wonderful arty creations. Drop in for families all day.

17 August. Climb a Monolith

In 2019 the Wiltshire Outside Learning Team brought their huge climbing wall to the doorstep of Salisbury Museum and visitors of all ages experienced climbing a monolith the same height (24 feet) as the Sarsens at Stonehenge. Again, the team are joined by English Heritage experts from Stonehenge, bringing their Neolithic handling collection to provide an insight into the world of the Stonehenge builders.

Suitable for those who can fit into a harness and climb a 24 feet high rock!

24 August. Ready, Steady, Iron Age Cook!

In the museum's garden a tented kitchen will transform visitors back to the Iron Age where you can experience historical food and cooking. "Pario Gallico" translates as "The Gallic Cauldron" in Latin. These experts using authentic methods and tools will bring to life the smells, tastes and sounds of life in Britain over 2,500 years ago.
