Dear Children

Well I hear from the teachers that you are all enjoying the daily Google Meets and Zoom sessions and most of you are working hard to complete the work your teachers have been setting you. I know it is not the same and you would much rather be at school where you can meet your friends and enjoy playtimes but we will all be together again soon, I am sure of it. We have 3 more weeks to half term and then maybe the Government will be thinking about schools being able to re-open but we have to wait for them to tell us.

The cooking session this week, where we made cinnamon buns, was very successful and was enjoyed by everyone (including me and my 2 deputy demonstrators – Gracie and Maisy from class 5). Here are some of the photographs I received from our budding chefs.

Finn's

I had a lovely message from Robyn (Class1) to say sorry there was no picture because they had all been eaten ! 😊

The next cooking session will be at the same time next Wednesday 27th January at 1.30pm. Remember the only rule is YOU have to help with the washing up! So next week we will make some mini quiches. If your parents can collect together the ingredients (no weighing this week) then we can all make them together.

You will need:

- ½ packet of shop bought shortcrust pastry (you can make your own beforehand if you wish to and put in the fridge for 20mins) – You can put the other half in the freezer as we will use it next week.

We know that God loves us; We show it by being loving, honest and respectful.

'Do Everything In LOVE' - 1 Corinthians 16 v14

- 2 spring onions
- ½ red pepper
- 1 egg
- a little milk
- some finely grated cheese.

You will also need a 12 holed bun tin and a cutter (8cm diameter)

Here are the details for the cookery Zoom meeting:-

Karen Walker is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

Ralph put on 10 oz (old fashioned measurement which is the same as 150g) this week. He is a bit of a guzzler, but he is still not sleeping more than 2 hours at a time during the night. However, in all of the pictures I have of him, he is asleep!

Keep safe, be helpful and care for each other.

Love from Mrs. Walker
