Dear Parents and Carers,

You will know that following the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on Thursday of last week, we have now entered a period of National Mourning, a period of time for reflection. This period will conclude after the State Funeral which takes place next week on Monday 19 September. King Charles III has declared this day a bank holiday as a mark of respect. Our school, along with all others, will be closed on that day.

All children are expected to attend school as normal during the period of National Mourning, other than on the bank holiday. Should you feel your son or daughter would benefit from some particular support during this period, please contact Miss Mackle. Similarly, should you have any questions please do get in touch.

Sincerely,

Joanne Fernie
